What does our Service do?

Barnardos has been delivering services in South Tipperary since 2006. We currently offer two services in South Tipperary from our base in Elm Park, Clonmel, both of which are funded primarily by Tusla. The Family Support Project is now in its 18th year and works directly and intensively with a number of vulnerable families in Clonmel and surrounding areas. Referrals are taken from Tusla social work and the Prevention Partnership and Family Support (PPFS) services, as well as self-referrals.

Service interventions are needs-led offering comprehensive family support assessments along with interventions that aim to stabilise the family situation and promote children's development. Services are outcomes-focused aiming to reduce risk from harm and promote the best quality of care in the family, thereby reducing the likelihood of the family requiring intervention from the Social Work Child Protection System.

The interventions offered by the Project include:

- Assessment of the needs of the child and family
- Intensive family support interventions
- Partnership with Parents- Barnardos one to one targeted programme for parents
- Practical Family Support
- Crisis Management
- Parent-Child Work, enhancing the parent - child relationship
- Family Work- to enhance positive interactions, problem solving strategies and communication as a family.
- Individual work with children and young people
- Meitheal- full delivery of the Tusla PPFS Meitheal Programme.
