

Suggested activities based on 'Greta Thunberg: Little People, Big Dreams'

Literacy Activities

- List three things you can do to protect the environment when you are at school.
- List three things you can do to protect the environment when you are at home.
- Write what you would say to world leaders about saving our planet from global warming.

Science

- Find out why trees are so important to our environment.
- Find out what goes into the general rubbish bin, the recycling bin and the compost bin.
- What reminders would you put on your fridge to remind your family to save their environment.
- Find out more about Asperger's Syndrome.

SPHE

- List all the things that you are good at.

Art Activity

- Design a poster to encourage people to recycle or to save water or to save electricity.

Geography Activity

- Find out all you can about Sweden