

Head

us as parents focusing on our child - thinking about them – seeing the world through their eyes

Heart

Us as parents putting ourselves inside our child and feeling their feelings – feeling what it is like for them

Hands

Us as parents doing and saying things that let our child know that we are trying hard to understand her (guessing is good!)